With this Privacy Policy we would like to keep you updated regarding:

- How and why we collect and process your information
- How this information helps us to meet your needs and requirements
- With whom and why we share your information
- Your choices regarding how we use your information
- The security measures we take to keep your information safe
- How you can contact us regarding privacy issues

TYPES OF INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect as little information as possible to be able to provide services that fit your needs. Usually, this information includes:

- Contact details (name, email, address, home address, mobile and land line numbers)
- Tax information (name, VAT number, profession)
- Id information (name, date of birth, gender)
- Data produced when you visit our website (e.g. from cookies)

The above-mentioned data are processed, recorded and stored in a confidential manner by the Controller, namely FL PRIVATE COLLECTION in compliance with the provisions of European law, as set out in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We would like to keep you always updated regarding collecting and using your personal data. We only ask for the minimum information required to satisfy your requests and to effectively communicate with you. In general, we collect information to:

- Buy products from our E-SHOP in response to a relevant request that you submit through our website
- Answer your questions submitted through the Contact Form of our website
- Address and generally manage your requests before arriving at as well as when you are in the physical store of FL PRIVATE COLLECTION
- Issue and file tax documents relating to transactions between us
- Make and receive payments
- Send you newsletters and other informational material
- Satisfy your requirements and adapt our services to your personal preferences

We collect your personal data when you fill the communication forms in our web site.

CONSENT

We always ask for your consent when we intend to use your personal data for purposes other than these related to the provision of our services such as sending informational emails and newsletters.

You need to know that you may always withdraw your consent by communicating with us on the phone +30.2310.209560 or by email: info@flprivatecollection.gr. With regards to the promotional messages and newsletters you can always opt out by simply clicking the link "Unsubscribe" at the end of all the relevant emails.

In the event that you provide us with personal information of a third party, you are responsible for informing the person in question of the use of his data and for obtaining his explicit consent that this information is provided for the purposes described above.

TRANSFER OF YOUR INFORMATION

We never disclose your information to third parties, except when:

- You have given us your explicit consent
- It is legally required by court order or at the request of any other competent governmental, judicial, police, administrative or regulatory authority, after a legal relevant request and in accordance with the applicable laws
- It is necessary in order to provide you with a service that you have requested by us (e.g. transfer from and to the airport)
- It is required by a critical internal process (e.g. IT support, accounting services, etc.)
- There is an emergency situation, such as preservation of a person's life, health or property

When your information is transferred to third parties, we seek to minimize this information to the extent necessary to achieve the specific purpose.

Unless otherwise prohibited by any legal process, third parties are obliged and bound to protect your personal data in accordance with our policy and comply with applicable laws and regulations on privacy and personal data.

RETENTION AND ERASURE

We will retain your Personal Data for the period necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law. The criteria used to determine the retention period of your data include:

- The time period we have a professional relationship with you
- Whether there is a legal obligation to which we are subject (for example, tax laws require us to keep records of your transactions for a certain period)
- Whether retention is advisable considering our legal position (such as, for statutes of limitations, litigation or regulatory investigations)

After the end of retention period, your personal data are destroyed, deleted or anonymized.

YOUR RIGHTS

You must know that according to General Data Protection Regulation, you have certain rights regarding your personal data under our possession. Specifically, you can ask us to:

- Give you a copy of your data
- Correct your data, if you think they are not accurate
- Erase your data, if there are specific reasons to do so
- Limit the processing applied to your data
- Give your data to you in an appropriate format and to transfer them to another Company
- Stop processing your data, under certain conditions

To ask us to do anything of the above, you can contact us by phone (+30.2310.209560) and by email: info@flprivatecollection.gr.

We will promptly examine your request against the relevant requirements of the laws and regulations governing personal data protection and we will answer the latest within 30 days after receiving your request. It is possible to ask from you some kind of identification (e.g. photocopy of your identity card or passport) to avoid non-authorized reveal of your personal data. If, for reasons of complexity of the request or a multitude of requests, we are unable to respond promptly, we will notify you within 30 days of any delay, which in no case may exceed two months from the expiration of the 30-day deadline.

To ensure that your personal data are always accurate and updated, we recommend you keep us informed about your data, as needed (e.g. in case of a change in a street or email address).

If you feel that your rights regarding your personal data are being compromised, you have the right to submit a complaint to the competent Data Protection Authority: <http://www.dpa.gr>, Kifissias 1-3, T.K. 115 23, Athens, tel. 210 6475600, email: contact@dpa.gr.

COOKIES POLICY

Introduction

This website, <https://www.flprivatecollection.gr> , uses cookies. We use cookies to personalize content and ads, to provide social media features and to analyze our traffic. We also share information about your use of our site with our social media, advertising and analytics partners who may combine it with other information that you've provided to them or that they've collected from your use of their services.

What are cookies?

Also known as browser cookies or tracking cookies, cookies are small, often encrypted text files, located in browser directories. They are used by web developers to help users navigate their websites efficiently and perform certain functions. Due to their core role of enhancing/enabling usability or site processes, disabling cookies may prevent users from using certain websites. Cookies do not damage your electronic equipment, nor can they read information from other files on your computer's hard drive.

Cookies are created when a user's browser loads a particular website. The website sends information to the browser which then creates a text file. Every time the user goes back to the same website, the browser retrieves and sends this file to the website's server. Computer Cookies are created not just by the website the user is browsing but also by other websites that run ads, widgets, or other elements on the page being loaded. These cookies regulate how the ads appear or how the widgets and other elements function on the page.

The law states that we can store cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for the operation of this site. For all other types of cookies, we need your permission. You can at any time change or withdraw your consent from the Cookies Settings on our website.

What cookies do we use?

Our website is using statistics cookies and marketing cookies. Some cookies are placed by third party services that appear on our pages (e.g. Google analytics).

If you use a different browser, please follow the instructions provided by its manufacturer.

How you can manage cookies settings

You may select and change the cookie settings (with the exception of the technically necessary cookies) by clicking on Cookie settings. Making a cookie active, you consent to the use of cookies according to the provisions of this Cookies Policy.

SECURITY

We apply security technologies, data protection policies and other measures to protect personal data under our control from unauthorized access, inappropriate use, alteration, illegal or accidental destruction and loss. We also require from all our employees and any third party that have access to or are authorized to process your data, to be bound by a contract or a non-disclosure agreement to protect your privacy.

DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY FOR THIRD PARTY WEBSITES

Although our site may contain links to third-party sites, we are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of these sites and we expressly disclaim any liability for any loss or damage that may be caused by the use of these links. We do not monitor the privacy practices or the content of these sites. If you have any questions about the privacy practices of another site, you should contact the site's responsible personnel. We suggest you read the privacy policy of each website you interact with, before allowing the collection and use of your personal data.

We may also provide social media features that allow you to share information on your social networks and interact with FL PRIVATE COLLECTION on various social media sites. The use of these social media features may result in the collection or sharing of information about you. We recommend that you check the privacy policies and regulations of the social networking sites you interact with, so that you can be sure that you understand what information may be collected, used and disclosed by these sites.

PERSONAL DATA OF MINORS

According to our Internal Regulation only adults may book a camping spot or other accommodation. Therefore, we record reservation details from adults that may, depending on the occasion, declare the names and ages of minors that will stay with them. Our practice is not to obtain and / or knowingly retain information about persons under the age of sixteen (16) without parental consent as required by law.
